

O'Hara Leadership Award for Direct & Interactive Marketing Education 2020 Application

The mission of the DMAW Educational Foundation is to promote the education of college students and their professors in direct and interactive marketing. The O'Hara Leadership Award has been established to recognize outstanding achievement by a professor, college/university, or author that furthers this mission.

If you are a leader, or know of a colleague, in educating college students in direct and interactive marketing in Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, Washington, D.C., or West Virginia, we invite you to either personally apply or nominate a colleague for the award.
